10. On June 2, 2023, TPI filed the Certification of Counsel Regarding Order Approving Stipulation Granting Limited Relief from the Automatic Stay [Docket No. 308], in which TPI and the Trustee stipulated to relief from the automatic stay to permit TPI to submit the Claim Notice under the Escrow Agreement (the "Stipulation").

<sup>6</sup> The following is intended merely as a summary of certain provisions in the Settlement Agreement. The summary should not be construed as a waiver or limitation of any of the terms of the Settlement Agreement. To the extent of any inconsistency between the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Motion, the terms of the Settlement Agreement shall apply.

RELIEF REQUESTED

17. By this Motion, the Trustee seeks the entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto, approving the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and authorizing the Trustee to take any and all actions as may be necessary and appropriate to implement the provisions of the Settlement Agreement.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

I. The Trustee requests that the Bankruptcy Court approve the Settlement Agreement.

18. This Bankruptcy Court has the authority to grant the relief requested in this Motion pursuant to section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a). Bankruptcy Rule 9019 governs the approval of compromises and settlements, and provides as follows:

On motion by the Trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019. In addition, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the “court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.”

19. Under this authority, the Third Circuit has emphasized that “to minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy estate, ‘[c]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy.’” Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 393 (3d Cir. 1996) (quoting 9 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 9019.03[1] (15th ed. 1993)). In addition, this district has recognized that the approval of a proposed compromise and settlement is committed to the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court. See In re Louise’s, Inc., 211 B.R. 798, 801 (D. Del. 1997).

20. Before approving a settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, a court must determine whether “the compromise is fair, reasonable, and in the interests of the estate.” In re Marvel Entm’t

Grp., Inc., 222 B.R. 243, 249 (D. Del. 1998) (quoting Louise's, 211 B.R. at 801). The Third Circuit has enumerated four factors that should be considered in determining whether a compromise should be approved: (i) the probability of success in litigation; (ii) the likely difficulties in collection; (iii) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; and (iv) the paramount interest of the creditors. See Martin, 91 F.3d at 393 (citing Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-25 (1968)).

21. Fundamental to the process of evaluating proposed settlements is “the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.” TMT Trailer Ferry, 390 U.S. at 425. The TMT rule does not require the Bankruptcy Court to hold a full evidentiary hearing before a compromise can be approved, but rather the Bankruptcy Court’s obligation is “to canvas the issues and see whether the settlement ‘falls below the lowest point in a range of reasonableness.’”

22. The Trustee’s agreement to release the Escrow Amount to TPI is further authorized by section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Under section 363(b)(1), the Trustee, “after notice and a hearing, may use . . . other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Courts have held that proposed uses of estate property pursuant to section 363(b)(1) should be approved upon a finding that the decision to enter into the transaction represents a reasonable business judgment. E.g., In re Filene's Basement, LLC, No. 11-13511 (KJC), 2014 WL 1713416, at *12 (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 29, 2014) (“Transactions under § 363 must be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor or trustee.”).

23. The Trustee submits in the exercise of his business judgment that the Settlement Agreement and the proposed settlement embodied therein meets all of the above criteria. TPI has asserted a Claim in excess of $24 million based on Akorn Operating’s indemnification obligations under and breaches of the pre-petition APA. Given the amounts at issue, it makes good business sense to resolve the matter consensually and to avoid costly litigation. By entering into the Settlement Agreement, the Trustee has efficiently reconciled TPI’s Claim in return for a release of any and all claims arising from the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements. Moreover, the agreed upon Settlement Amount is a fraction of the asserted Claim amount, and the proposed Settlement will allow the Trustee to recover funds from the Escrow Account for the benefit of the estates. The Trustee respectfully submits that the terms of the Settlement Agreement fall well within the range of reasonable litigation outcomes and should be approved.

24. For these reasons, the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and well within the Trustee’s reasonable business judgment. Accordingly, the Trustee respectfully submits that the Settlement Agreement should be approved pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. The Trustee requests that the stay of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) not apply.

25. Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) provides that an “order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property . . . is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after the entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h). The Trustee requests that the Bankruptcy Court waive this fourteen day stay, and that the order approving this Motion be effective immediately.

26. The purpose of Rule 6004(h) is to provide sufficient time for an objecting party to appeal before an order can be implemented. See Advisory Committee Notes to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h). Although the Rules and the Advisory Committee Notes are silent as to when a court should “order otherwise” and waive the fourteen day stay, the leading bankruptcy treatise suggests that the 14-day stay period should be eliminated to allow a transaction to close immediately “where there has been no objection to the procedure.” 10 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 6004.11 (16th ed. 2023).

The treatise further provides that if an objection is filed and overruled, and the objecting party informs the court of its intent to appeal, the stay may be reduced to the amount of time actually necessary to file such appeal.

27. The terms of the Settlement Agreement require the Parties to submit joint written instruction to the Escrow Agent within two (2) business days of the approval of the Settlement Agreement by this Court. Consequently, a waiver of the Rule 6004(h) stay is necessary in order to effectuate the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

NOTICE

28. Notice of this Motion will be given to the following parties (the "Notice Parties"):
(i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) counsel to TPI; (iii) counsel to the Debtors Young, Conaway, Stargatt & Taylor LLP; (iv) the largest thirty (30) unsecured creditors with names and addresses appearing in Schedule F of the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities prepared by the Debtors; and (v) all parties who have requested notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002. The Trustee submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an order granting the relief requested by this Motion, as well as any additional relief as is just and proper.
